

F.

1. What two key words tell you that the problem is an equation and not an expression?

2. Write the following in numerical form:

Five and y altogether

3. The word difference means you are going to do what operation?